MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the “Litigation”) respectfully submit for the Court’s preliminary approval a proposed Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement Agreement”) resolving this Litigation. Pursuant to the proposed Settlement Agreement, defendant McAfee, Inc. (“McAfee”) will provide an $11.50 Settlement Benefit to all members of the Auto-Renewal Class—each of whom may choose to receive such benefit as cash, or otherwise will receive it as a McAfee value certificate good towards the purchase of McAfee or Intel Security consumer products. The $11.50 amount represents approximately one-half of the average alleged overcharge for auto-renewal transactions during the class period, as estimated by Plaintiffs. In the aggregate, the $11.50 Settlement Benefits total more than $80 million. In addition, McAfee has agreed to implement important changes regarding both auto-renewal transactions and its advertising of reference prices.

The Settlement Agreement is the product of extensive arms-length negotiations between the parties and their experienced and informed counsel, assisted by an experienced mediator, Eric Green of Resolutions LLC, and is absolutely fair, reasonable, and adequate given the claims, the relief sought, and the parties' respective litigation risks. The Settlement Agreement falls well within the "range of reasonableness" applicable at the preliminary approval stage.

Moreover, the Settlement Agreement provides for a robust, multi-pronged notice program that is well-tailored to provide Class Members the best notice practicable of the pendency of the Litigation, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel's fee and cost application, and Class Members' opt-out rights and rights to object. Further, McAfee will pay for the costs of the Settlement Administrator, including the costs of notice and distributing the Settlement Benefits, in addition to (i.e., on top of) the other benefits of the Settlement Agreement.

Plaintiffs and their undersigned counsel believe the Settlement Agreement to be in the best interests of the Class Members and seek to begin the Court approval process that is required for all class action settlements. Plaintiffs therefore respectfully request that the Court review the Settlement Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit A to the accompanying Heller Decl., and do

1 the following:

2 1. Grant preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement;

3 2. Certify, for settlement purposes only, the proposed classes, as defined in the 4 Settlement Agreement;

5 3. Appoint Michael W. Sobol and Roger N. Heller of Lieff Cabraser Heimann &
6 Bernstein LLP, Daniel M. Hattis of Hattis Law, and Robert Ahdoot and Tina Wolfson of Ahdoot
7 & Wolfson, P.C., as Class Counsel;

8 4. Appoint Plaintiffs Sam Williamson and Samantha Kirby as class
9 representatives;

10 5. Approve the parties' proposed notice program, including the proposed forms of 11 notice, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and direct that notice be disseminated pursuant 12 to such program;

13 6. Appoint Angeion Group ("Angeion") as Settlement Administrator, and direct 14 Angeion to carry out the duties and responsibilities of the Settlement Administrator as specified 15 in the Settlement Agreement;

16 7. Approve the parties' proposed Cash Election form, and approve the procedures 17 set forth in the Settlement Agreement for the submission of Cash Elections, for Class Members to 18 exclude themselves from the classes, and for Class Members to object to the Settlement;

19 8. Stay all non-Settlement related proceedings in the Litigation pending final 20 approval of the Settlement Agreement; and 21 9. Set a Final Fairness Hearing and certain other dates in connection with the final 22 approval of the Settlement Agreement.

23 II. BACKGROUND

24 A. Procedural History

25 This Litigation began in early 2014. The first-filed Williamson case was filed in this 26 Court on January 10, 2014, alleging claims on behalf of two nationwide classes of McAfee 27 customers: (1) a "Class" of customers who incurred charges for the automatic renewal of their 28 McAfee software ("auto-renewal"); and (2) a "Reference Price Class" consisting of customers

1 who made purchases of McAfee software where McAfee advertised a “reference price” for the 2 product. Plaintiff Williamson alleged that the prices McAfee charged for auto-renewal were 3 higher than its disclosures indicated they would be, and that McAfee’s advertised reference prices 4 were misleading in that they allegedly did not represent McAfee’s true former selling prices.
 5 Plaintiff sought damages, restitution, and injunctive relief on behalf of the Class of auto-renewal
 6 customers, and injunctive relief on behalf of the Reference Price Class. (Williamson Dkt. 1)

7 On March 7, 2014, McAfee filed a motion to dismiss the initial complaint in the 8 Williamson case. (Williamson Dkt. 21) Plaintiff Williamson filed an opposition to McAfee’s 9 motion on April 11, 2014, and McAfee filed its reply on May 2, 2014. (Williamson Dkt. 25, 27)

10 The Kirby case was filed on May 29, 2014 on behalf of a nationwide class of McAfee 11 auto-renewal customers, alleging claims that overlapped in significant part with certain of the 12 claims alleged in the Williamson case. (Kirby Dkt. 1) On July 1, 2014, the Kirby case was 13 formally related to the Williamson case, and assigned to this Court, pursuant to Civil Local Rule
 14 3-12. (Kirby Dkt. 16)

15 On August 22, 2014, the Court entered an Order in the Williamson case granting in part 16 and denying in part McAfee’s motion to dismiss. (Williamson Dkt. 40) On September 8, 2014, 17 Plaintiff Williamson filed a First Amended Complaint (“FAC”). (Williamson Dkt. 42) On 18 October 9, 2014, McAfee filed a motion to dismiss the FAC. (Williamson Dkt. 48) Plaintiff 19 Williamson filed an opposition to McAfee’s motion on November 4, 2014, and McAfee filed its 20 reply on November 25, 2014. (Williamson Dkt. 54, 59) On March 2, 2015, the Court took 21 McAfee’s motion to dismiss the FAC under submission. (Williamson Dkt. 66).

22 On July 8, 2015, the parties in the Williamson and Kirby cases notified the Court that they 23 had reached an agreement in principle on certain deal terms for a class settlement, and on July 9, 24 2015, at the parties’ request, the Court entered an Order staying proceedings in the two cases
 25 pending the filing of a proposed class settlement. (Williamson Dkt. 69, 70)

26 B. Class Counsel’s Investigation and Discovery

27 Proposed Class Counsel conducted a particularly extensive investigation prior to filing 28 suit. Among other efforts, Class Counsel used a sophisticated, self-developed tracking

1 mechanism to compile and analyze daily pricing and discount information directly from 2 McAfee's and other retailers' websites. Every day for approximately two years before the initial 3 Williamson complaint was filed, and continuing throughout the litigation, Class Counsel collected 4 daily screenshots and pricing and discount information from McAfee's website for the software 5 products at issue in this Litigation, as well as similar information from the websites of other 6 retailers. Class Counsel conducted analyses of the information gathered through this means.
 7 Class Counsel also spoke with more than two dozen McAfee customers about their experiences, 8 carefully analyzed McAfee's consumer agreements and pertinent disclosures, and conducted 9 extensive legal research regarding potential legal claims. Class Counsel's investigation and 10 research have continued since Plaintiffs filed suit, including continuing to track the information
 11 from McAfee's website and ongoing extensive legal research. Heller Decl., ¶ 11; Hattis Decl., ¶¶ 12 8-9.

13 Further, Class Counsel have engaged in significant discovery, including: reviewing and 14 conducting a detailed analysis of class-wide McAfee pricing and transactional data for the 15 relevant time period (which included millions of individual transaction records); reviewing 16 McAfee's historical consumer agreements and other important documents; propounding and 17 responding to written discovery requests; and engaging in numerous meet and confer sessions
 18 regarding McAfee's electronic document and data systems and Plaintiffs' requests for production 19 of documents. Heller Decl., ¶ 12; Hattis Decl., ¶¶ 8-9.

20 C. Settlement Negotiations

21 The Settlement Agreement here is the product of hard-fought, arms-length negotiations 22 between the parties. The parties engaged in a full-day mediation session with Eric D. Green of 23 Resolutions, LLC on April 8, 2015. Following that session, the parties continued to negotiate 24 through Prof. Green and, with his assistance, were able to reach an agreement in principle on 25 certain terms in July 2015. During the subsequent months, the parties continued to negotiate 26 through the mediator, holding numerous teleconferences with Prof. Green. With Prof. Green's 27 assistance, the parties ultimately were able to reach an agreement in principle on deal terms.
 28 After an agreement in principle was reached on the claims, the parties, with the further assistance

1 of Prof. Green, reached an agreement regarding Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and 2 costs. Since that time, the parties have worked diligently on finalizing the settlement papers, 3 including the forms of notice and other exhibits, and selecting a proposed Settlement 4 Administrator. Heller Decl., ¶ 13.

5 III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AND NOTICE PROGRAM

6 A. The Settlement Classes

7 Plaintiffs seek provisional certification of an "Auto-Renewal Class," defined in the 8 Settlement Agreement as:

9 All persons in the United States who paid McAfee for the automatic 10 renewal of a subscription license for any McAfee software
 11 (including software branded under the "McAfee" or "Intel 12 Security" names) from January 10, 2010 to February 10, 2015, and 13 whose first auto-renewal charge was at a price greater than the price paid to McAfee for the initial subscription license. The Auto-Renewal Class shall not include any person whose charges as described above were fully refunded by McAfee or fully charged back through such person's credit or debit card issuer.

14 Plaintiffs also seek provisional certification of a "Reference Price Class," defined in the 15 Settlement Agreement as:

16 All persons in the United States (1) who initially purchased from 17 McAfee or manually renewed through McAfee a subscription 18 license for any McAfee software (including software branded under the "McAfee" or "Intel Security" names) from January 10, 2010 to February 10, 2015, and (2) whose subscription license was initially 19 purchased or manually renewed at a discounted price.

20 Excluded from both classes are employees of McAfee and its parents and affiliates, counsel for 21 all parties, the Court, and the Court's staff. McAfee does not oppose certification of the above
 22 classes for settlement purposes only. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1-4)

23 B. Benefits to the Class Members

24 1. $11.50 Settlement Benefit for All Auto-Renewal Class Members

25 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, all Class Members in the Auto-Renewal Class will 26 receive an $11.50 Settlement Benefit. They each will have the option of receiving the $11.50
 27 benefit as: (a) cash; or (b) an $11.50 McAfee value certificate. They can choose the cash option 28 by submitting a simple Cash Election form, and may submit Cash Election forms electronically

1 via the Settlement Website or by mail. The Cash Election form will be substantially in the form
 2 attached as Exhibit 8 to the Settlement Agreement. The deadline for submitting Cash Election
 3 forms will be 70 days after the Notice Date. For Cash Election forms submitted online, Class
 4 Members will have the choice of receiving their cash payment either as a check or as a direct 5 credit to their PayPal account. For Cash Election forms submitted by mail, payments will be by 6 check. Class Members in the Auto-Renewal Class who do not submit a timely and valid Cash 7 Election form will receive an $11.50 McAfee value certificate (in the form of an electronic code), 8 good towards the purchase of McAfee or Intel Security consumer products. (Settlement, ¶¶ 28-9 35)

10 2. Practice Changes

11 McAfee has also agreed to implement important practice changes addressing both the 12 auto-renewal pricing and reference price allegations in the Litigation. Specifically, McAfee has 13 agreed to implement the following for two years after the Settlement Agreement receives final 14 approval by the Court:

15 (1) McAfee will include at the point of sale in any sales process involving sales made by 16 McAfee at a discount off a reference price and subject to automatic renewal (including for sales 17 made through the McAfee website and through the in-software purchase path), the following or 18 materially similar language: “Your subscription(s) will be automatically renewed at the 19 undiscounted subscription price in effect at the time of renewal. The subscription price is subject 20 to change.” A hyperlink will be provided that links to a webpage that includes the current 21 undiscounted subscription price for the applicable McAfee software or McAfee will display the 22 undiscounted subscription price (labeled the “undiscounted subscription price”) for the applicable 23 McAfee software on the point of sale webpage. Substantially similar disclosures will be added to 24 a FAQ or informational page on McAfee’s website, to notices sent by McAfee to subscribers in 25 connection with automatic-renewal, and to McAfee’s End User License Agreement.

26 (2) Where McAfee includes a reference price in its promotions, notices, advertisements or 27 at the point-of-sale (including through the McAfee homepage and through the in-software 28 purchase path), for any McAfee software product offered by McAfee to United States consumers:

1 (a) McAfee will use as such reference price only a price at which McAfee has offered that 2 software product on the McAfee homepage to the public for at least 45 days within the preceding 3 calendar quarter; and (b) McAfee will offer that software product on the McAfee homepage to the 4 public at a non-sale price for at least 45 days within the current calendar quarter.

5 (Settlement, ¶ 37)

6 C. Notice Program

7 The Settlement Agreement includes a robust notice program that is well-designed to give 8 Class Members the best notice practicable of the Settlement Agreement, the Cash Election 9 process and deadline, Class Counsel's fee and cost application, and Class Members' opt-out and 10 objection rights. As set forth below, the notice program will be administered with the help of an 11 independent Settlement Administrator,² and will consist of multiple parts. (Settlement, § III)

12 1. Direct Notice to Class Members

13 Short Form Notices will be sent directly to all Class Members by email and/or U.S. Mail.
 14 To that end, within 30 days following entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, McAfee will 15 provide the Settlement Administrator with a "Class List" that includes, for each Class Member: 16 (a) the last known email address that McAfee possesses; (b) the last known mailing address that 17 McAfee possesses; and (c) whether they are a member of the Auto-Renewal Class, the Reference
 18 Price Class, or both classes.³

19 Within 45 days following the Court's entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the 20 "Notice Date"), the Settlement Administrator will email the appropriate Short Form Notice to 21 each Class Member at the email address listed for them in the Class List.⁴

22 For any Class Member for whom the Settlement Administrator receives notice that the 23 email Short Form Notice sent to them was not received (i.e., "bounce-backs"), the Settlement

24 ² The parties request that the Court appoint Angeion to serve as the Settlement Administrator.
 25 Angeion's experience and qualifications are set forth in the accompanying Weisbrot Decl.

26 ³ McAfee has an email address and mailing address on file for all Class Member accounts.
 27 Account holders' email addresses are their user names for purposes of logging into their McAfee accounts, and email is the primary means by which McAfee communicates with customers regarding their accounts.

28 ⁴ Class Members in the Auto-Renewal Class only or in both classes will be sent Short Form Notice # 1. Class Members in the Reference Price Class only will be sent Short Form Notice # 2.
 (Settlement, ¶ 8, Exs. 2-5)

1 Administrator will update the mailing address for that Class Member in the Class List, through 2 the U.S Postal Service National Change of Address Database, and, within 10 days after all email
 3 Short Form Notices have been sent, will mail the appropriate Short Form Notice via first class
 4 U.S. mail to that Class Member at their mailing address as updated. For any mailed Short Form 5 Notices that are returned with forwarding address information, the Settlement Administrator will 6 promptly re-mail the appropriate Short Form Notice to the new address indicated. (Settlement, ¶¶ 7 10-11)

8 2. Settlement Website and Toll-Free Number

9 The Settlement Administrator will establish and maintain a Settlement Website, 10 www.mcafeewilliamsonsettlement.com, where Cash Election forms can be submitted 11 electronically and where Class Members can obtain additional information and access copies of 12 the Settlement Agreement, the Long Form Class Notice (substantially in the form attached as 13 Exhibit 6 to the Settlement Agreement), the operative Williamson and Kirby complaints, Class 14 Counsel's application for attorneys' fees and costs (after it is filed), and other case documents.
 15 The Settlement Administrator will also establish and maintain a Toll-Free Number where Class 16 Members can obtain additional information. Both the Settlement Website and Toll-Free Number 17 will be operational by no later than the first date that any Short Form Notices are sent to Class
 18 Members. (Settlement, ¶ 9)

19 D. Opt-Out Procedures

20 Any person within the Auto-Renewal Class definition may request to be excluded from 21 the Auto-Renewal Class by sending a written request, clearly stating their desire to be excluded, 22 to the Settlement Administrator by the deadline proscribed by the notices. Likewise, any person 23 within the Reference Price Class definition may request to be excluded from the Reference Price
 24 Class by sending a written request, clearly stating their desire to be excluded, to the Settlement
 25 Administrator by the deadline proscribed by the notices.⁵ (Settlement, § IV)

26

27

28 ⁵ The parties propose that the deadline to send opt-out requests be 45 days after the Notice Date set by the Court.

1 E. Objection Procedures

2 Any Class Member may object to the Settlement (except to the extent it relates only to a 3 class in which the Class Member in question is not included or from which the Class Member in 4 question has timely and validly requested exclusion), Class Counsel's application for attorneys'
 5 fees and costs, and/or the request for Plaintiff service awards. To be considered, an objection 6 must be in writing, must be filed with or mailed to the Court, and mailed to Class Counsel and 7 McAfee's counsel, at the addresses listed in the Long Form Class Notice, must be postmarked by 8 the deadline proscribed by the notices,⁶ and must include the information proscribed by the Long 9 Form Class Notice. (Settlement, § IV)

10 F. Payment of Administrative Costs

11 All fees and costs of the Settlement Administrator will be paid by McAfee in addition to 12 (i.e. on top of) the other settlement benefits provided to the Class Members. (Settlement, ¶ 5)

13 G. Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Costs

14 Class Counsel will apply for an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in a total 15 amount not to exceed $2,400,000. Any attorneys' fees and costs awarded to Class Counsel will 16 be paid by McAfee in addition to (i.e., on top of) the benefits provided to Class Members.⁷
 17 (Settlement, § VII)

18 H. Service Awards for the Plaintiffs

19 Class Counsel will request service awards of $1,250 each for the two named Plaintiffs, to 20 compensate them for their time and efforts in the Litigation. Any service awards will be paid by 21 McAfee in addition to (i.e., on top of) the benefits provided to Class Members. (Settlement, ¶ 41)

22 I. Release

23 In exchange for the benefits provided by the Settlement Agreement, Class Members will 24 release McAfee and related entities from any claims they may have related to the issues in these

26 ⁶ The parties propose that the deadline to send objections be 45 days after the Notice Date set by 27 the Court.

28 ⁷ Class Counsel's fee and cost application, and the amount that will be requested therein, will appropriately account for Class Counsel's commitments of time and resources in prosecuting these cases, the results achieved for the Class Members, the risks that Class Counsel assumed in taking on these cases, the complexity of the issues involved, and applicable law.

1 cases. (Settlement, § VIII)

2 IV. ARGUMENT

3 A. The Class Action Settlement Approval Process

4 Judicial proceedings under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 have led to a defined three-5 step procedure for approval of class action settlements:

6 (1) Certification of a settlement class and preliminary approval 7 of the proposed settlement after submission to the Court of a written motion for preliminary approval.

8 (2) Dissemination of notice of the proposed settlement to the 9 affected class members.

10 (3) A formal fairness hearing, or final settlement approval 11 hearing, at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement are presented.

12 See Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth (Fed. Jud. Center 2004), §§ 21.63 et seq. This 13 procedure safeguards class members' procedural due process rights and enables the Court to 14 fulfill its role as guardian of class interests. See 4 Newberg on Class Actions, § 11.22 et seq. (4th 15 ed. 2002) ("Newberg").

16 With this motion, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court take the first step in the 17 settlement approval process by granting provisional certification of the proposed classes and 18 granting preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement Agreement; appointing a Settlement 19 Administrator; directing that notice be disseminated to the Class Members pursuant to the 20 proposed notice program; and issuing the related relief requested herein.

21 B. Certification of the Proposed Classes is Appropriate

22 Certification of the Auto-Renewal Class and Reference Price Class, for settlement 23 purposes only, is appropriate because Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a) & 23(b)(3) are 24 satisfied.

25 1. Rule 23(a) is Satisfied

26 a. The Classes Are Too Numerous to Permit Joinder

27 A case may be certified as a class action only if "the class is so numerous that joinder of 28 all members is impracticable." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). While there is no fixed rule, a class with

1 at least 40 members is generally sufficiently large. Jordan v. County of Los Angeles, 669 F.2d 2 1311, 1319 (9th Cir. 1982), vacated on other grounds, 459 U.S. 810 (1982). Here, the Auto-
 3 Renewal Class and Reference Price Class each include millions of McAfee customers.⁸

4 b. Common Questions Are Presented

5 Rule 23(a)(2) requires that there be one or more questions common to the class. See 6 Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp, 150 F.3d 1011, 1019 (9th Cir. 1998); 1 Newberg § 3.10; see also Wal-
 7 Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 131 S. Ct. 2541, 2556 (2011). As to both classes, the claims in this 8 Litigation raise common questions, including whether McAfee’s representations about auto-9 renewal pricing were material; whether McAfee’s advertised reference prices were material; and 10 what effect, if any, the terms and conditions in McAfee’s standardized consumer agreement have 11 on the claims alleged.

12 c. The Named Plaintiffs’ Claims Are Typical

13 Rule 23(a)(3) requires that “the claims and defenses of the representative parties are 14 typical of the claims or defenses of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). Typicality does not 15 require total identity between representative plaintiffs and class members. Armstrong v. Davis, 16 275 F.3d 849, 869 (9th Cir. 2001). Rather, typicality is satisfied so long as the named plaintiffs’
 17 claims stem “from the same event, practice, or course of conduct that forms the basis of the class 18 claims, and is based upon the same legal theory.” Jordan, 669 F.2d at 1321; In re Juniper 19 Networks Sec. Litig., 264 F.R.D. 584, 589 (N.D. Cal. 2009) (“representative claims are ‘typical’ if 20 they are reasonably co-extensive with those of absent class members”) (citation omitted).

21 Here, the named Plaintiffs’ claims stem from the same common course of conduct as the 22 claims of the Class Members. The named Plaintiffs and all members on the Auto-Renewal Class 23 had their McAfee software subscriptions auto-renewed by McAfee at a price higher than what 24 they paid for their initial subscriptions. Moreover, the named Plaintiffs and the members of the 25 Reference Price Class all made software subscription purchases or manual renewals subject to 26 advertised reference prices that Plaintiffs allege were misleading. The typicality requirement is

27
 28 ⁸ According to McAfee’s records, there are approximately 7.53 million persons in the Auto-Renewal Class and approximately 8.85 million persons in the Reference Price Class. These numbers include approximately 5 million Class Members who are in both classes.

thus satisfied here.

d. The Named Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Will Fairly and Adequately Protect the Interests of the Class Members

Rule 23(a)(4) requires that the representative plaintiffs will “fairly and adequately” protect the interests of the class. The two-prong test for determining adequacy is: “(1) Do the representative plaintiffs and their counsel have any conflicts of interest with other class members?; and (2) will the representative plaintiffs and their counsel prosecute the action vigorously on behalf of the class?” Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 957 (9th Cir. 2003); Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. Both prongs are satisfied here.

First, the named Plaintiffs' interests are aligned with, and not antagonistic to, the interests of the Class Members. The named Plaintiffs have the same interest as all Class Members in obtaining redress for their claims. Second, proposed Class Counsel have extensive experience litigating and settling class actions, including consumer cases. They have demonstrated expertise in handling all aspects of class actions, and are well qualified to represent the classes. Heller Decl., ¶¶ 3-9; Hattis Decl., ¶¶ 3-6, 11; Wolfson Decl., ¶¶ 2-14. Moreover, the named Plaintiffs and proposed Class Counsel remain fully committed to advancing the interests of, and obtaining relief for, the Class Members, as evidenced by, inter alia, the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement.

2. Rule 23(b)(3) Is Satisfied

In addition to the requirements of Rule 23(a), at least one of the prongs of Rule 23(b) must be satisfied. Here, Rule 23(b)(3) is satisfied, which permits a class action if the Court finds that “questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). Common issues predominate here. That is particularly so given that, if the proposed Settlement Agreement is approved, there will be no need for a trial, and thus manageability of the classes for trial need not be considered. Amchem Prods. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997).

Moreover, a class action is superior to other methods of litigation where, as here, class

1 treatment will promote greater efficiency and no realistic alternative exists. See Local Joint Exec.
 2 Bd. of Culinary/Bartender Trust Fund v. Las Vegas Sands, Inc., 244 F.3d 1152, 1163 (9th Cir.
 3 2001); Otsuka v. Polo Ralph Lauren Corp., 251 F.R.D. 439, 448 (N.D. Cal. 2008).

4 C. Preliminary Approval of the Settlement Is Appropriate

5 Public policy “strong[ly] . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class action 6 litigation is concerned.” In re Syncor ERISA Litig., 516 F.3d 1095, 1101 (9th Cir. 2008); 7 Churchill Village, L.L.C. v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 576 (9th Cir. 2004); Class Plaintiffs v. City
 8 of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992).

9 “[T]he decision to approve or reject a settlement is committed to the sound discretion of 10 the trial judge because he is exposed to the litigants and their strategies, positions, and proof.” 11 Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026. In exercising such discretion, the Court should give “proper deference 12 to the private consensual decision of the parties...[T]he court’s intrusion upon what is otherwise a 13 private consensual agreement negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the 14 extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or 15 overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a 16 whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027; see also 17 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2).

18 At the preliminary approval stage, a court need only find that the proposed settlement is 19 within the “range of reasonableness,” such that dissemination of notice to the class and the 20 scheduling of a fairness hearing are worthwhile and appropriate. 4 Newberg § 11.25; see also In 21 re Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1079-80 (N.D. Cal. 2007).

22 The proposed Settlement Agreement here satisfies the standard for preliminary approval 23 because: (a) it is the product of hard-fought, arms-length negotiations between the parties, 24 reached after a thorough investigation by Class Counsel of the facts and the law; (b) it provides 25 relief that is appropriately tailored to the alleged harm, and is fair, reasonable, and adequate given 26 the claims, the relief sought, and the parties’ respective litigation risks; and (c) it was negotiated 27 by, and is recommended by, experienced Class Counsel.

1 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Arms-Length Negotiations After a 2 Thorough Investigation

3 “Before approving a class action settlement, the district court must reach a reasoned 4 judgment that the proposed agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion 5 among, the negotiating parties.” City of Seattle, 955 F.2d at 1290 (internal quotations omitted).
 6 Where a settlement is the product of arms-length negotiations conducted by capable and 7 experienced counsel, the court begins its analysis with a presumption that the settlement is fair
 8 and reasonable. See 4 Newberg § 11.41; In re Heritage Bond Litig., 2005 WL 1594403, at *9 9 (C.D. Cal. June 10, 2005); Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility, 87 F.R.D. 15, 18 (N.D. Cal. 1980).

10 The Settlement Agreement submitted for the Court’s consideration is the product of hard-11 fought, arms-length negotiations between the parties and their well-qualified and well-informed 12 counsel. The parties participated in a full-day mediation session and extensive ongoing 13 negotiations through an experienced and well-respected mediator, Eric D. Green of Resolutions 14 LLC, and were able to reach an agreement with the help of Prof. Green. During the past months, 15 the parties have been working diligently to finalize the settlement papers and to select a proposed 16 Settlement Administrator. See supra section II.C. Throughout these negotiations, the parties 17 were represented by counsel experienced in the prosecution, defense and settlement of complex 18 class actions.

19 The Settlement Agreement here is also informed by Class Counsel’s extensive 20 investigation and discovery regarding the legal and factual issues in the Litigation. Among other 21 things, for approximately two years before filing suit, and continuing throughout the Litigation, 22 Class Counsel tracked, on a daily basis, pricing and other pertinent information from McAfee’s 23 website and from the websites of other retailers, and conducted analyses using the information 24 gathered through this means. Class Counsel also spoke with more than two dozen McAfee 25 customers about their experiences, carefully analyzed McAfee’s consumer agreements and 26 pertinent disclosures, and conducted extensive legal research regarding the potential legal claims.
 27 Class Counsel’s investigation and research have continued since filing suit. Heller Decl., ¶ 11; 28 Hattis Decl., ¶¶ 8-9.

1 Moreover, Class Counsel have engaged in significant discovery, including: reviewing and 2 conducting a detailed analysis of class-wide McAfee pricing and transactional data for the 3 relevant time period (which included millions of individual transaction records); reviewing 4 McAfee's historical consumer agreements and other important documents; propounding and 5 responding to written discovery requests, and engaging in numerous discovery meet and confer 6 sessions. Heller Decl., ¶ 12; Hattis Decl., ¶¶ 8-9.

7 Further, there was substantial litigation in this matter, including two fully briefed motions
 8 to dismiss filed by McAfee. In negotiating the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiffs and their counsel 9 were informed by, inter alia, the motions practice and the Court's ruling on the first motion.

10 2. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate Given the Alleged 11 Harm and the Potential Risks of Ongoing Litigation

12 The Settlement Agreement provides substantial, valuable relief that closely tracks the 13 relief sought, and is well within the "range of reasonableness." All members of the Auto-14 Renewal Class will receive an $11.50 Settlement Benefit without having to take any action. They 15 will each have the choice of receiving the $11.50 benefit as cash by filing a Cash Election form, 16 or, if they do not file a Cash Election form, they will still receive the benefit in the form of an 17 $11.50 McAfee value certificate. Moreover, the Cash Election form and submission process are 18 straightforward and user-friendly, and are designed to make submitting forms and receiving 19 payments convenient, including by providing an online claim submission option and the option of 20 receiving payments in the form of a check or a direct credit to a PayPal account. In the aggregate, 21 the $11.50 Settlement Benefits total more than $80 million for the members of the Auto-Renewal 22 Class.

23 To put the $11.50 benefit amount in perspective, that amount represents approximately 24 one-half (1/2) of the average alleged overcharge for auto-renewal transactions during the class
 25 period as estimated by Plaintiffs, a strong result. While some members of the Auto-Renewal 26 Class had their annual subscriptions auto-renewed more than once during the class period, and 27 while Plaintiffs believe they would have a credible basis for seeking, at trial, damages based on 28 all such auto-renewals, McAfee has argued that even if Plaintiffs' auto-renewal claims had merit

1 (which McAfee disputes), customers would have at least been on notice of McAfee's auto-
 2 renewal pricing after incurring their first auto-renewal charge. Thus, there is uncertainty
 3 regarding whether Plaintiffs could have recovered damages per customer beyond a single auto-4 renewal transaction even in the proverbial "home run" scenario.⁹

5 Moreover, the Settlement includes important practice changes by McAfee addressing both 6 the auto-renewal pricing and reference price claims in the Litigation. See supra section III.B.2.
 7 For the auto-renewal claims, the improved disclosures provided for in the Settlement Agreement 8 will make McAfee's auto-renewal pricing policies significantly clearer, helping customers to 9 make informed choices regarding their software subscriptions. With respect to the reference price 10 claims, the Settlement Agreement provides clear, objective terms governing the circumstances in 11 which McAfee may advertise a reference price, helping to ensure that McAfee will not advertise 12 reference prices without an appropriate basis in its actual prices, and thus closely tracking the 13 relief sought with respect to these claims.¹⁰

14 Further, the Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of administrative costs, and 15 Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, on top of the other benefits provided for the Class 16 Members.

17 The relief obtained for Class Members represents a strong result, particularly given the 18 risks and challenges of ongoing litigation. Among other arguments that McAfee has made and/or 19 indicated it would make if the Litigation proceeded are: (a) its disclosures regarding auto-20 renewal pricing would not mislead a reasonable consumer; (b) its policies regarding auto-renewal 21 pricing were disclosed in its form consumer agreements; (c) auto-renewal customers were sent 22 advance notice of the prices they would be charged and could cancel their renewed subscriptions 23 after being charged; (d) its advertised reference prices were sufficiently based on auto-renewal

24
 25 ⁹ Plaintiffs estimate that, on average, Class Members in the Auto-Renewal Class had their 26 subscriptions auto-renewed a little over two times during the class period. Even if every one of 27 these transactions were hypothetically subject to recovery, the $11.50 benefit amount would still represent approximately one-quarter (1/4) of the average alleged total overpayments per class member.

28 ¹⁰ The claims pled regarding McAfee's reference prices sought injunctive relief only.
 (Williamson Dkt. 42, ¶¶ 7, 150, 160) The practice changes obtained for the Reference Price Class pursuant to the Settlement Agreement appropriately track the relief sought for these claims.

1 sales prices and/or other sales prices of the products in question; (e) customers got software 2 products worth what they paid for them; and (f) its reference prices would not mislead a 3 reasonable customer. Moreover, McAfee has a second motion to dismiss pending in the 4 Williamson case. Further, McAfee disputes whether a class trial would be manageable. While 5 Plaintiffs believe they could overcome these challenges, they are indicative of the risks that 6 Plaintiffs and the proposed classes would face if the Litigation were to continue. The proposed 7 Settlement Agreement provides considerable relief while allowing Class Members to avoid the 8 risks of unfavorable, and in some cases dispositive, rulings on these and other issues. The 9 Settlement Agreement also provides another significant benefit not available if the Litigation 10 were to go to trial—prompt relief. Proceeding to trial could add years to the resolution of this 11 Litigation, given the legal and factual issues raised and likelihood of appeals.

12 3. The Recommendation of Experienced Counsel Favors Approval

13 In considering a proposed class settlement, “[t]he recommendations of plaintiffs’ counsel 14 should be given a presumption of reasonableness.” Knight v. Red Door Salons, Inc., 2009 U.S.
 15 Dist. WL 248367, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 2, 2009); see also Linney v. Cellular Alaska Partnership, 16 1997 WL 450064, at *5 (N.D. Cal. July 18, 1997). Here, proposed Class Counsel endorse the 17 Settlement Agreement as fair, adequate, and reasonable. Heller Decl., ¶ 14; Hattis Decl., ¶ 16; 18 Wolfson Decl., ¶ 19.

19 Class Counsel have extensive experience litigating and settling consumer class actions and 20 other complex matters. They have conducted an extensive investigation into the factual and legal 21 issues raised in this Litigation. The fact that qualified and well-informed counsel endorse the 22 Settlement Agreement as being fair, reasonable, and adequate weighs heavily in favor of the 23 Court approving the Settlement Agreement.

24 D. The Proposed Forms of Notice and Notice Program are Appropriate and 25 Should be Approved

26 The proposed forms of notice and notice program here fully comply with due process and 27 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Rule 23(c)(2)(B) requires:

28

1 the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including 2 individual notice to all members who can be identified through 3 reasonable effort. The notice must clearly and concisely state in 4 plain, easily understood language: the nature of the action; the 5 definition of the class certified; the class claims, issues, or defenses; 6 that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if 7 the member so desires; that the court will exclude from the class 8 any member who requests exclusion; the time and manner for 9 requesting exclusion; and the binding effect of a class judgment on 10 class members under Rule 23(c)(3).

11 In the context of a class settlement, the notice must also include a general description of the 12 proposed settlement. See Churchill Village, 361 F.3d at 575; Torrisi v. Tucson Elec. Power Co., 13 8 F.3d 1370, 1375 (9th Cir. 1993).

14 The proposed forms of notice here include the required information. See Settlement, Exs.
 15 2-6. Moreover, the robust, multi-pronged proposed notice program detailed above, which 16 includes direct notice to Class Members, is well-designed to ensure the best notice practicable 17 under the circumstances. See infra section III.C.

18 E. The Court Should Schedule a Final Fairness Hearing and Related Dates

19 The next steps in the settlement approval process are to notify Class Members of the 20 proposed Settlement Agreement, allow Class Members an opportunity to exclude themselves or 21 file objections, and hold a Final Fairness Hearing. Towards those ends, the parties propose the 22 following schedule:

23 Last day for McAfee to provide the Class List to the 24 Settlement Administrator	[30 days after entry of 25 Preliminary Approval Order]
26 Notice Date	[45 days after entry of 27 Preliminary Approval Order]
28 Last day for: (a) Class Counsel to file motion for 29 entry of Final Judgment and Order; and (b) Class 30 Counsel to file their application for attorneys' fees, 31 costs, and Named Plaintiff service awards, with a 32 response, if any, by McAfee due within thirty (30) 33 days thereafter	[15 days after Notice Date]
34 Opt-Out Deadline	[45 days after Notice Date]

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Objection Deadline	[45 days after Notice Date]
	Cash Election Deadline	[70 days after Notice Date]
	Last day for the Parties to file any responses to objections, and any reply papers in support of motion for entry of Final Judgment and Order and/or Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees, costs, and Named Plaintiff service awards	[14 days before Final Fairness Hearing]
	Final Fairness Hearing	_____, 2016 at :__.m.

10 V. CONCLUSION

11 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court do the following:

- 12 a. Grant preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement Agreement;
- 13 b. Certify, for settlement purposes only, the proposed classes;
- 14 c. Appoint Michael W. Sobol and Roger N. Heller of Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein LLP, Daniel M. Hattis of Hattis Law, and Robert Ahdoot and Tina Wolfson of Ahdoot & Wolfson, P.C., as Class Counsel;
- 15 d. Appoint Plaintiffs Sam Williamson and Samantha Kirby as class representatives;

i. Schedule a Final Fairness Hearing and certain other dates, as proposed herein, in connection with the final approval of the Settlement Agreement.
